SR SCHEDULE

Scheduling appointments over the phone is time consuming. A recent study found these phone calls take over eight minutes to complete! That adds up to hours of time every day!

With SR Schedule, those eight-minute phone calls can be turned into fast and easy online interactions. Patients can schedule an appointment from any device, any time it's convenient for them. Studies show that over three-quarters of patients want to be able to book appointments online, but they aren't the only ones who will enjoy it. SR Schedule will make the scheduling process easier for your practice as well.
